

School of Arts & Sciences
Assistant Professor, Clinical Psychology

The Department of Psychology at The Catholic University of America seeks to fill a Tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Clinical Psychology, to begin Fall 2019.

Applicants should have an ongoing research program with potential to attract extramural funding and be committed to excellence in teaching, mentorship, and clinical training. A range of content areas that focus on Clinical Psychology with adults will be considered. The Department is especially interested in candidates with research programs with adults in clinical interventions, positive psychology, disparities, and behavioral medicine/health psychology.

The Department offers BA, BS, MA and PhD degrees, including an APA-accredited program in Clinical Psychology. Eleven full-time faculty have active research programs that attract substantial external funding and involve national and international collaborations. The University is located on a 250-acre, park-like campus in northeast Washington DC, convenient to neighboring medical centers, universities and laboratories including the NIH. Additional information may be found on our web site (<https://psychology.catholic.edu/>).

In addition, we seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University: <https://www.catholic.edu/about-us/at-a-glance/index.html>

To apply, please submit the following to schiele@cua.edu:

A current curriculum vitae, research statement, teaching statement, three representative publications, three letters of recommendation (sent directly by recommenders), and a one-to two-page personal statement indicating how your research, teaching, and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University's mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae, which can be found here: http://w2.vatican.va/content/john-paul-ii/en/apost_constitutions/documents/hf_jp-ii_apc_15081990_ex-corde-ecclesiae.html

Review of files will begin October 29 and continue until the position is filled. The University will perform background checks on all new faculty hires prior to making the final offer of employment. Questions about submission procedures can be directed to Ms. Kaitlin Schiele, Academic Specialist, at schiele@cua.edu or at 202-319-5757.
